Some programs in the graduate school level (marked in red) are restricted to exchange students. Courses from the Sogang Business School (graduate level) and GSIS have a different registration system.
* Students get approval to join the courses from the lecturers in the 1st week of a semester.

The OIA offers scholarships to exchange students who wish to take Korean language course at Sogang's Korean Language Education Center (KLEC). The scholarship covers the tuition fee for the Korean language course and the amount of scholarship differs depending on the program that students choose to take.

Intensive Course (KAP200): Full scholarship is offered to exchange students.
 Tuition fee is waived but application fee is required.
 * This fee will be refunded upon completion of the course.
 Evening Course (KGP60): Partial scholarship (appx. 50% of full tuition) is awarded.
 USD 300 is required as the final tuition fee.

Partial scholarship for KGP60 will only be available until 2019 Fall semester.

(KAP200)

(KAP200)

Schedule	Mon-Fri (5 times a week) * 10 weeks , 200 hours
Class Size	Around 12-16 students
Levels	1-6 (1 is the lowest level; beginner)
Fee	Tuition waived. Textbook KRW 50,000 – KRW 65,000
Credits	12 credits

Only students majoring or minoring in Korean Language or Korean Studies will be allowed to register for the intensive program (KAP200). Transcripts that students submit upon application will be used to determine the student's academic major/minor. Students who study East Asian Studies or International Studies with a focus on Korea must submit a recommendation letter to enroll in KAP200. There is a application fee payment of USD 300 to enroll in KAP200. This fee will be refunded to students at the end of the semester if they meet the minimum attendance requirement. Students are required to attend more than 80% of classes. Students with other academic majors may take KAP200, but they are not subject to the scholarship offered by Sogang OIA and thus will have to pay full tuition. Students who take KAP200 must register for a regular course (3 credits) from the university to maintain their visa status as an exchange student.

(KGP60)

(KGP60)

Schedule	Mon, Tue, Thu (3 times a week)* 10 weeks, 60 hours
Class Size	Around 12-16 students
Levels	1-3 (1 is the lowest level)
Fee	Partial Scholarship. Textbook KRW 50,000 – KRW 65,000
Credits	3 credits

Students taking KGP60 will be offered partial scholarship so they only need to pay USD 300 to take the course. There is no application fee payment required.

Students must register for the Korean language course through Sogang's online application system when submitting their application for exchange. Students are required to make the application fee or tuition payment within the designated registration period to be able to register for the course.

Exchange students have to apply for a visa (D-2-6) prior to their arrival in Korea. Students need to take the documents included in their acceptance package to the local Korean Embassy or Consulate and apply for visa.

Required documents for visa application

Certificate of Admission

Letter of Acceptance

Certificate of Business Registration of Sogang University

Additional documents may be required depending on the student's place of residence.

Please contact the local Korean Embassy or Consulate and check the documents required for visa application.

It is strongly recommended that students plan ahead and apply for their visa as soon as they receive their acceptance packages. Without a valid visa, students may have to cancel their exchange semester at Sogang University.

Upon arrival, all exchange students must apply for Alien Registration. All foreigners intending to stay in Korea for more than 90 days are subject to Alien Registration. Sogang OIA will assist students with Alien Registration when the semester begins.

All exchange students are required to submit a copy of insurance certificate that covers all medical costs, emergencies, and accidents during the period of their study at Sogang. Without a valid insurance certificate, student's enrollment at Sogang can be cancelled. It is important that students are covered by their insurance from their arrival date to departure date.

Sogang has a very active student organization called Hands Up for Gathering (HUG). Buddies from HUG are Sogang students who help international students adjust smoothly into the life and culture of Korea. HUG organizes different field trips, parties, Korean language tutoring, and many cultural activities. Students can apply for the buddy program when submitting their online application for exchange.
